Special Virtual Session: COVID-19 and OSH

Topic: COVID-19 and OSH

When: Monday, October 5, 2020 9:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m. EST

Due to the worldwide impact of COVID-19 and the postponement of the Congress to September 2021, the International Organizing Committee has decided to host a Special Session on October 5, 2020 focused on COVID-19 and OSH. This free virtual session features thought leaders discussing emerging innovations in addressing COVID-19 in the workplace, how the future of work is being shaped by the global pandemic, and the relevance of promoting a culture of prevention to addressing COVID-19. Topics will also include the International Media Festival for Prevention, Vision Zero, and strengthening resilience for sustainable workplaces through social dialogue. Translation into French, German, English and Spanish will be available. More details coming soon.

Topic: Special Sessions organized by the ILO and ISSA

When: Tuesday, October 6, 2020 8:00 a.m. – 11:00 a.m. EST

On October 6, 2020, the International Labour Organization and the International Social Security Association are organizing special sessions that will be of interest to the global occupational health and safety community and policy makers.

Registration

All sessions will be held online, free of charge. Registration opens in early September 2020 on the Congress website. In the meantime, be sure to save the date, and sign-up now to receive the latest World Congress updates and announcements.
